

The image shows a smart speaker on the left with a circular display. The display shows a weather forecast: "70°" with a sun and cloud icon, "Good morning! it's 6:30 AM", and a "dismiss" button. To the right of the speaker is a blue speech bubble containing a Facebook logo, the text "like us on facebook.", a thumbs-up icon, and the URL "www.facebook.com/www.ghpfcu.org".

If your FB like is anonymous, please show it to us at the branch. Drawing will be held Nov. 2, 2018.

The best reason to LIKE and follow our page is to stay informed about the CU, promotions, events and news. You can also post reviews and share information that you think other members might enjoy.

A second reason to LIKE the page is to be entered into this fun drawing, to be held on Nov 2 at the CU at noon!

Visit our new facebook page at www.facebook.com/GHPFCU and click the LIKE button found in the banner photo.

If your privacy settings are not set to be anonymous, then we will see your name and enter you into the drawing.

However, if your settings are set to be private for page likes, then even though you have liked the page, we will not know it. You can either adjust your settings, or stop in the branch to show us.

You can also like our page at the time you are in the branch, and we will enter you then.

In addition to liking the page, each new member will be entered into the drawing, and each member who refers a new member will be entered.
